

Our Quality Policy

- To deliver absolute client satisfaction concerning yachts and mega yachts, design, engineering, building, manufacturing, outfitting, renovation, maintenance, repair and technical support with our strong infrastructure and technology, experienced staff, and innovative management mentality under any regulatory requirements,
- To maximise effectiveness and efficiency of any resources by providing continuous development with the help of our mentality in risk and opportunity driven management system and process improved by us consistently as well as our ability to become integrated very quickly in response to any changes,
- To serve as a model respecting society and people, and to make positive contribution to the domestic industry and the national economy.

Our Occupational Health and Safety Policy

- To ensure occupational health and safety of any personnel, subcontractors and visitors on the premises of the Shipyard,
- To minimise any potential risks and dangers that could be arisen from any machines, devices, equipment, workbenches, work and material movements or instruments assisting manufacturing,
- To eliminate any potential danger arising from conditions of work environment at its source,
- To periodically plan health activities of any employees and work in a coordinated manner with joint health units,
- To raise awareness of all workers of the Shipyard and any subcontractors with respect to Occupational Health and Safety by training them continuously in a planned way,
- To aim to have “no occupational accident or disease” by eliminating any danger at its source with participation of all personnel,
- To assess any risks on Occupational Health and Safety and occupational diseases and take preventive and corrective actions in advance and continuously,
- To adopt OHSAS Occupational Health and Safety Management System and fulfil its requirements completely in order to raise consciousness of OHSAS standard systematically and regularly in all areas of activity by meeting any obligations of the current law.

Our Environmental Policy

- To keep under control any factors causing environmental pollution and minimise such factors accordingly,
- To prevent waste of any resources by using them effectively and efficiently in a planned way,
- To continuously train in a planned way and raise awareness of all workers of the Shipyard and any subcontractors with respect to environmental health and safety together with any partner organizations,
- To use recycling and waste management technologies,
- To raise awareness of all personnel and contribute to waste sorting and recycling technology by conducting waste management effectively,
- To ensure continuous development and improvement in terms of environmental health and safety in any work processes,
- To adopt Environmental Management System and fulfil its requirements in order to raise environmental health and safety consciousness systematically and regularly in all areas of activity with the principles of TS EN ISO 14001 standard by meeting obligations of the current law.